CAPE FREELS CHILDREN'S PROGRAM

Photos By: Christy Vincent | Written By: Kaitlynn Harushimana

You have seen many pictures before of the Cape Freels Seventh-day Adventist Children's Sabbath School. This group of ladies led by devoted leaders Sandra Stagg and assistant Christy Vincent is jumping into the new year programs. Since the VBS in 2019 each week has been a new exciting adventure together. Assistant Christy says, " I love teaching and working with the kids." Christy is one of your NL Youth who is passionate about working with the next generation of youth. And this is something she looks forward to every week.

In the photos, you can see one of their recent Sabbath School lessons. This lesson focused on identifying and learning what Baptism is and why it is important. With a tub of water and a little doll, they were able to create a "mini-baptism" and practice "dipping" their little dolls in Baptism.

If you have a story to share about your Sabbath School, we encourage you to send it in! We can share ideas and learn from each other. Thank you, Cape Freels Sabbath School Class.

STUFFED AT THE GILL'S

Cashew Noodle Casserole

2 tablespoons oil
1 cup celery, finely chopped
1 medium onion, chopped
1 can mushrooms, stems and pieces
½ cup sweet red and/or green pepper
1 can mushroom soup
½ soup can milk plus mushroom liquid
1 cup raw cashew nuts, chopped coarse
3 rounded cups Chow Mein noodles
Salt and pepper to taste

Preheat oven to 350 degrees.

Grease or pan spray an 8 cup casserole or baking dish. Sauté the celery, onion, mushrooms and sweet pepper in oil for a few minutes, until soft.

Do not brown vegetables. Add the milk and mushroom liquid to the mushroom soup, and stir. Combine together the soup mixture, sautéed vegetables and remaining ingredients. Taste and adjust for salt and pepper. Pour into a greased casserole and bake at 350 degrees for 25-30 minutes. The mixture will seem a little moist, but thickens as it stands.

A tasty vegetarian main or side dish.
