singing and shared letters of condolence from friends and family who could not attend the funeral. Anne Gill provided beautiful piano accompaniment for the service.

Clergy in attendance included Pastor Russ Austin from Port de Grave Pentecostal Tabernacle; Pastor David Boutcher from Gander, Cape Freels, and Lethbridge SDA Churches; and Pastor Eric Ollila, NL Adventist Communications.

While all in attendance were caught by the unexpectedness of Eugene's death and impacted by the penetrating sorrow and grief experienced by those closest to Eugene, the service was one of hope. Christ was uplifted as the Saviour who would one day destroy death and its dreadful sting.

Eugene Stagg Funeral

February 22, 2018 | NL Adventist Communications

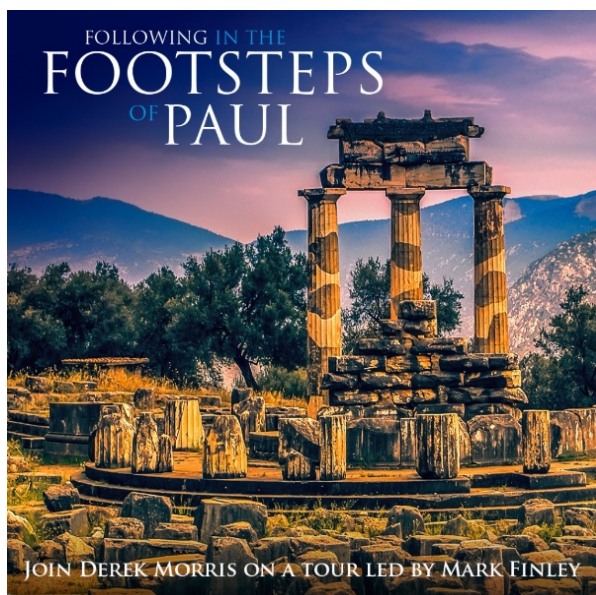

A large crowd of family and friends turned out Thursday afternoon for an emotionally charged funeral service held for Eugene Stagg, who suddenly passed away Saturday past. The service was held at the Bay Roberts Seventh-day Adventist Church and was officiated by Seventh-day Adventist minister, Pastor Jason Williams, of Bay Roberts. Pastor Ken Corkum, president of Seventh-day Adventist Church in Newfoundland and Labrador shared Psalm 25.

Ron Stagg gave a touching tribute to the life of his dear brother, Eugene. Fond memories were shared, laughs, and tears were had by those in attendance. A special feature of photos followed on screen. Phillip Milmine led the congregational
