Welcome to Our New Pastoral Families!

June 29, 2018 | NL Adventist Communications

The Seventh-day Adventist Church in Newfoundland and Labrador would like to extend a warm welcome to the new NL pastors and their families.

A week ago, Friday, following their honeymoon and wedding, Pastor Etienne and Katie Harushimana arrived in Newfoundland. The couple were married, June 10, in Lacombe, Alberta.

Since arriving in Newfoundland, they have been preparing to begin ministry in Marystown, gearing up for VBS, Camp, and seeking to get established for basic living. They purchased their first family car this week, which, in addition to taking care of family needs, will be used to transport the NL VBS team.

On Sunday, July 1, Pastor Jamie and Sarah Joseph and Pastor Ely Magtanong will be arriving to the province.

Pastor Jamie and Sarah have been enjoying time with family and friends in Jamaica, following their graduation from Burman University. Both are looking forward to coming to the island.

Also on Sunday, Pastor Ely Magtanong will be arriving from Florida. His wife will join him during the last weekend of camp meeting. Before coming here, Pastor Ely has been busy serving in chaplaincy at Vitas Health Care.

New Pastor Preaching Schedule

Each of the pastors will be preaching at the following locations on the dates listed:

Pastor Ken & Celest Corkum's Great Controversy Tour-Continued

June 5, 2018 | By Pastor Ken Corkum

As part of our trip, we visited Geneva, Switzerland; Zurich, Switzerland; Constance, Germany. Here are some photos from each...

Construction Begins on VOAR FM Tower

June 21, 2018 | NL Adventist Communications

Construction has begun on the 350 ft. steel FM tower and the accompanying utility building at the Kenmount Road, VOAR Tower Site.

The tower structure, when finished, will be the tallest free-standing structure in Newfoundland, some 150 ft. taller than the two existing AM towers.

Grundy Telcom Integration Inc. is heading up the tower building project and Cavanagh Construction is building the metal sided utility building. Weather permitting, they are hoping to have the project completed within the next several weeks.

Update from Pastor Eric & Lucy Ollila

June 27, 2018 | NL Adventist Communications

Dear NL Adventist Members & Friends:

It is with mixed emotions of joy and sadness to announce to you that Lucy and I accepted a call, earlier this week, for me to serve in the Alberta Conference as their new communications director.

Lucy and I are thankful for the Lord's leading and providence in opening this opportunity for further ministry and for continuing to provide for our needs.

Through the 8 years here, I have personally grown to appreciate the experience and time spent in Newfoundland, both as a pastor, and in communications. I value the relationships that have been formed and the friendships developed with both church and community members throughout our entire province. Most importantly, I am grateful to God for all the lessons He has taught me, and the valuable self-knowledge I have gained through the various experiences He has granted.

Newfoundland will always hold a special place in our hearts. Both Lucy and I desire to see the Seventh-day Adventist Church and VOAR grow and prosper locally, and globally.

We pray for the new generation of pastors who are entering the great work here. We wish them God's abundant blessings in spreading the magnificent message of the everlasting Gospel to everyone in the province.

We look forward to seeing many of you at Camp Meeting and saying our good byes.

Pastor Eric & Lucy Ollila
