Every Sabbath at 3 p.m.

Submitted By: Stephen McIntyre

Selina McIntyre of the Bay Roberts Church would like to invite all children between the ages of 7-12 to her Sabbath Afternoon Bible Hour. Selina has been having these meetings for the past few sabbaths with the help of her sister Jenna. These meetings will be at 3 p.m. every Sabbath; please contact Stephen McIntyre on Facebook or at stephen.mcintyre@outlook.com for the ZOOM info.

We love it when our NL Youth take the initiative to share the love of Jesus. Thank you, ladies, for your dedication and ministry. Please join us in praying for these young people as they study the word of God.

"for in Christ Jesus you are all Children of God, through faith"

Stuffed At the Gill's

Taken from: stuffedatthegills.ca

CHIK'N BURGER

2 ½ cups rolled oats, uncooked
1 can chick peas, drained and rinsed
(garbanzo beans)
1½ cups water or vegetable stock
½ large onion, quartered
½ large onion diced small
1 teaspoon savory, or to taste (or poultry seasoning)
2 tablespoons soy sauce or Bragg's Aminos
1 teaspoon salt or to taste

Remove ½ cup oats and whiz in blender until turned to a coarse oatmeal flour. Set aside.

Place chick peas water, and onion quarters in blender. Blend until very smooth. Pour into large bowl or mixer. Add remaining ingredients including the oat flour and mix well. Let rest 10 minutes to soak up the extra liquid. If the mixture seems very thick and stiff, add a little more water. It should be firm enough to make into a pattie but not stiff. It's better to have a thinner mixture than one too thick.

Form into patties and fry slowly until golden brown. Or bake 25-30 minutes at 350 degrees, turning once during baking. Use as hamburgers with your favourite condiments or serve with gravy and vegetables. You may freeze any left-over patties for another day.

Makes about 12 patties.
