Upcoming Christmas Programs

Submitted By: Angie Hodder

The St. John's Seventh-day Adventist Church will have its annual Christmas Candlelight Service on Friday, December 18, at 7 pm. Registration is almost full, but space is always available on the live stream link. Our YouTube link is <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCukkHM5WYZs-TVGpLBZgBAw> <https://www.youtube.com/user/stjohnssda>, so you can relax in the comfort of your own home while celebrating the greatest gift ever given - Jesus Christ.

The Corner Brook Seventh-day Adventist Church is half-way through their month of Christmas celebrations. Everyone in the Corner Brook area is welcome to join the Church Family for the next two Sabbaths, December 19 and 26th as they highlight the reason for the season. Fellowshiping and worshipping our loving Savior.

The Botwood Seventh-day Adventist Church will be having their Christmas service this Sabbath, December 19th.

A Christmas Surprise

SUBMITTED BY: LUCY MOORES | PHOTOS BY: LUCY MOORES

Together at Lucy Moores's home with the same ladies, they made special Christmas gifts for the community's seniors. In a little bag, they put some candy and wrote up personal cards with attached candy canes. They then went door to door singing "We Wish You a Merry Christmas" and handed out each gift.

Every year, the Cottrell's Cove Salvation Army Church's ladies would get together and host a special supper for the local seniors, and the Seventh-day Adventist Church would host a sing-along. Unfortunately, it wasn't possible with the restrictions of COVID 19. So, the Cottrell's Cove Seventh-day Adventist Church, in place of the Seniors Supper and Sing-Along, bought a few gift items.
